SUCKER CREEK FIRST NATION

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Department: Prevention
Position: Community Wellness Worker
Employment details: Full-time position; 40 hours per week, Monday to Friday, with some evening and weekend work required for community events and programming.
Location: Sucker Creek First Nation.
Reporting to: Prevention Manager
Salary: to be determined based on qualifications, experience

SUMMARY:

Sucker Creek First Nation Prevention is seeking a Community Wellness Worker to plan, coordinate, implement, and evaluate culturally relevant prevention and wellness initiatives for children, youth, families, and community members. This position will focus on primary prevention services that strengthen wellness, promote healthy family development, and support community-based programming.

DUTIES:

- Experience in Planning, coordinating, implementing, and evaluating prevention and wellness programs and activities.
- Facilitate workshops, community events, cultural activities, and wellness initiatives.
- Support healthy family development through parenting programs and preventative support.
- Incorporate traditional teachings, cultural knowledge, land-based learning, and holistic wellness approaches.
- Build and maintain positive working relationships with families, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, and partner agencies.
- Maintain accurate documentation, reports, statistics, and evaluations.
- Promote community awareness of prevention services and support.
- Ability to work independently, as a team and ability collaborate with other programs and services
- Maintain confidentiality, professional boundaries, and ethical standards.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Diploma or degree in Social Work, Human Services, Child and Youth Care, Community Development, Psychology, Education, or a related field.
- Minimum three (3) years of relevant experience.
- Experience working with First Nation communities.
- Strong communication, facilitation, organizational, advocacy, and relationship-building skills.
- Knowledge of trauma-informed, strengths-based, family-centered, and culturally safe practice.
- Knowledge of Sucker Creek First Nation history.
- Cree language is an asset.
- Valid driver's license and access to reliable transportation are required.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office, email, basic data entry, and report writing is required.

- Ability to work flexible hours, including occasional evenings and weekends, to support community events and programming.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: open until a suitable candidate is found.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants are asked to submit a cover letter, resume, three professional references, criminal record check and child intervention check.

Only qualified applicants will be contacted for an interview.

Mail to: Sucker Creek First Nation, Attention: Human Resources Fax: 780-523-3111

Attention: Human Resources E-mail: hr@scfn.ca

Box 65
Enilda, Alberta T0G 0W0